

HON.
LOREN
BAILY-SCHIFFMAN

NEUTRAL BIO

The Honorable Loren Baily-Schiffman was elected to the Civil Court of Kings County New York in 1998 and re-elected in 2008 and 2018. In 2009, Baily-Schiffman was appointed to the Supreme Court, Civil Term as Acting Supreme Court Justice. Of her 23-years on the bench, she tried hundreds of personal injury cases, from simple auto to complex multi-party labor law cases. During this time, Baily-Schiffman was highly regarded for her prowess in the art of mediation and successfully settling more than half of the trials between jury selection and verdict. Baily-Schiffman retired from the bench in 2021, bringing her deep experience and mediation skill set to SSAM ADR.

"As a judge, I saw that a verdict did not always reflect the true merits or lack of merits of the case and that a jury's understanding of the case and its value can be risky and completely unpredictable", says Baily-Schiffman. "So, to me, my essential job now, as a mediator for SSAM, is to make the parties aware of the benefits of controlling the outcome themselves and applying my mediation experience with a keen eye and firm commitment on the end-game of thoughtful settlement".
